Handicrafts:

The civilization of humanity has paved the legacy, which forms the historical identity of nations. Each of its various manifestations somehow reflects the glorious past and ancient civilization of the countries. Handicrafts is one of these manifestations, which reflects the identity of various nations.

Traditional rituals:

Traditional rituals contains the special customs, traditions and lifestyle of a nation. There are such traditions in the world that we have been accustomed to some of them, as New Year celebrating e.g. Nowruz, Christmas etc. However, our planet is full of these traditions, which reflect the type of those people thinking and mindset, somehow.

Tourism and Sports:

The tourism industry in the world is one of the main income sources and factors of effective cultural exchanges between countries. Therefore, many countries trying to increase their benefits from this international activity in a close and intensive competition. Sport tourism is the new type of tourism in which sport and tourism have become dependent and complement of each other. Sport has now become a widespread phenomenon for the development of human societies, a key tool for social, economic and diplomatic engagement, and an effective parameter in social health and vitality.

The Necessity of Organizing the Exhibition

Organizing such exhibition is a thoughtful idea of the present century, which shows different aspects of the culture and customs of the countries together. In this event, countries introduce their traditional rituals and handicrafts as well as sport and martial arts competitions. This event also is focused on tourism, sport and sport tourism.
